

We beg you not to sell the airwaves to the big business owners. We beg you to encourage the smaller stations to represent their communities, differing opinions from big media, European outlooks, and superior programming, whether ethnic or national.

Without WNYC and NPR, BGO and other Public Radio Stations, I would be a mere victim of mass media, shutting down my TV and my radio and going straight to Shortwave and Foreign Press materials.

I cannot believe (yet fear) that you will sell my freedom of information to the highest bidder. I BEG YOU, DO NOT SELL MY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER. PROTECT ME AS IS YOUR OBLIGATION. Thank you, Deborah Gordon of the above address. Do contact me if you have questions.
